Social and Personal

Miss Martha Roberts was presented to Richmond society last evening at a lovely dance given by her mother, Mrs. R. B. Roberts at the Country Club of Virginia. About 150 guests were invited to meet the debutantes, and the clubhouse was beautifully decorated in quantities of pink lilles, calms and pink shaded lights. Bay trees and wicker stands of lilles and stevia banked the corners of the ballroom, and a drapery of Southern smax and pink blossoms curtailed the gallery, where the orchestra was stationed, and outlined the entrances and windows. In the dining-room numerous small tables scattered about the room were decorated in pink shaded candles and shaded shades; pink roses, and the centrepiece was set with a tall silver vase filled with pink lilles and stars, and a cushion of the same flowers, festooned with pink tulips, wound about the base.

Mrs. Roberts presented her daughter to their guests, and a huge wicker basket, filled with the lovely bouquets sent Miss Roberts in honor of her coming out, was arranged just behind the receiving party. Mrs. Roberts was handsomely dressed in black lace made over white satin, with a bouquet of orchids, and the debutantes wore a lovely white dress made with a drapery of hand-painted chiffon and lace. She carried a sheaf of American Beauty roses.

Mrs. Robert Richford Roberts, II, the debutante daughter, Mrs. Joseph Estes and Mrs. H. Mosby, were at the punch bowl, and other assistants in doing the honors of the evening were Dr. and Mrs. Phil Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald P. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gwinthorne.

German Club Meeting.—The members of the Bachelors' Cottillion Club will meet this evening at 6 o'clock at the Commonwealth Club. The meeting is of the greatest interest to the dancing set of Richmond society, since it is for the purpose of electing officers and board members for the ensuing season, and deciding upon the dates for the germans to be given by the club. Last year three of the handsomest functions of the social season were the germans given by the Entertainment at Cards.—Mrs. E. A. Mueller was hostess Wednesday at a small but elegant matinee party, given at her home, 11 Park Avenue. Auction was played, and to Miss Margarette Dongan, the winner of the highest score, was given an attractive sandwich basket. The guests included Mrs. William Macrone, Mrs. O. L. Shadforth, Misses Margarette Dongan, Anna Simpson, Sally Bain Nottingham, Helen Young and Margarette Renn.

Miss Dongan has just returned from Richmond, where she was maid of honor at the Miller-Culper wedding Tuesday morning.
